

Catherine Wheel, Sparks Are Gonna Fly

Recent years were unsung
I light 'em up
Burning my horoscope
Recent fears I've undone
I give 'em up
Sick of my bogus ghost
Rising up it reached my highest line
C'mon Daisy don't drown me this time
I'm living in fits can't get myself ripped
Don't make me no criminal
I'm easily moved, it don't leave me no room
Don't make me no criminal
Rising up it reached my highest line
I had bad ideas and ballast on my mind
Now the sparks are gonna fly
'cos I'm turned on again
Burning up the future
I'm taking off
I'm taking off
Recent fears about love
I string 'em up
These are my robust ropes
There'll be no more tears I'm unplugged
Let's live it up
Easy come easy go
Falling down gave me my highest line
So c'mon Daisy don't drown me this time
Now the sparks are gonna fly
'cos I'm turned on again
Burning up the future
I'm taking off
I'm taking off
Falling down I reached my highest line
I've got a good idea what breaks you makes you shine
Now the sparks are gonna fly
'cos I'm turned on again
Burning up the future
Now the sparks are gonna fly
'cos I'm turned on again
Turning on the boosters
I'm taking off
I'm taking off
(so c'mon Daisy don't drown me this time)
