

Cathy Ang, Rocket to the Moon (z filmu Netflix Wy

Rocket to the moon
I look up in the heavens
And i can see your face...
Your gentle eyes in moonlight
I feel your warm embrace

We were the perfect family
Baba, you and me
I never though that he'd find somebody new
And not remember you
Of all the tales you told me chang' e was what i loved
She lost her precious Houyi
Then floated up above
She waits for him forever
So baba – wy can't he?
If i can prove to him ere tale is true
He'll remember you

Fly away
Chang'e are you calling to me?
Fly away
Are you up there looking at me?
Can you see what nobody sees?
Can you hear my voice up on the moon?
Fly away
Wish i had the wings to take me
High away
To a place where no one doubts me
