

Cathy Dennis, Everybody Move

Gold chains and shiny rings
An eye-opening sight in the fading night
She knows they're watching
As her hips breathe in for their second skin
Somebody better get out a warning
Somebody better start making room
Deep in the night I hear you calling
Tigers eyes can see you running
Everybody move
Let my love come through
Through your body to mine
Everybody move
There's no-one but you
And you're gonna be mine
Just back from Bombay
There are no frontiers now I know you're here
A telegram from a party man
We can dance all night cos it feels so right
Somebody better get out a warning
Somebody better start making room
Deep in the night I hear you calling
Tigers eyes can see you running
Everybody move
Let my love come through
Through your body to mine
Everybody move there's no-one but you
And you're gonna be mine
Got a feeling that he's looking at me
The people's idol and someone to envy
I've gotta tell him the way I'm feeling
Everybody move let my love come through
Through your body to mine
Everybody move there's no-one but you
And you're gonna be mine
Everybody move let my love come through
Through your body to mine
Everybody move there's no-one but you
And you're gonna be mine
