

Cathy Dennis, When Dreams Turn To Dust

Baby take your time
You may change your mind
When tomorrow is in your hands
Baby take your time
You may change your mind
When things don't go quite as planned
I don't want to alienate you
Or put phony words into your mouth
Can't you let it out
When your When Dreams Turn To Dust
I will revive you
When your nail starts to rust
I am behind you
When you're shamed and disgraced
I will not hide
I'll open my arms if you ask me
But you don't know if you want me
Doo doo doo doo doo
Doo doo doo doo doo
Doo
Doo doo doo, doo doo
Doo doo doo doo doo
Doo doo doo doo doo
Doo
Doo doo doo, doo doo
I don't want to alienate you
Or put phony words into your mouth
I just want to understand you
I just wanna know what you are on about
Can't you let it out
When your When Dreams Turn To Dust
I will revive you
When your nail starts to rust
I am behind you
When you're shamed and disgraced
I will not hide
I'll open my arms if you ask me
I don't wanna push you
I don't wanna rush you
I know I can help you
I'm here if you ask me
I don't wanna push you
[When your When Dreams Turn To Dust]
I don't wanna rush you
I know I can help you
I'm here if you ask me
I don't wanna push you
[When your When Dreams Turn To Dust]
I don't wanna rush you
I know I can help you
I'm here if you ask me
I don't wanna push you
[I am beside you]
I don't wanna rush you
I know I can help you
I'm here if you ask me
I don't wanna push you
I don't wanna push you
I don't wanna push you
