

Cattle Decapitation, Tooth Enamel And Concrete

Pain like you've never felt before
Your face instantly grated and scraped along the sidewalk
Chiseled up, filed down & a concrete crown
I've got your face to the curb
With my pleathur boot you'll learn - life is cheap
Let's have a sacrifice in which we take your life
Straight through your mouth - denting your dentin
The power I uphold
Teeth and concrete now mold
Shaved and scraped
Hovering above your twitching, bloody mouth that still keeps bitching:
&quot;Just tell me why?&quot;
Why? Because you are human...
O, the insanity... the humanity.
Toothless gash gives new meaning to &quot;cavities&quot;...
Filing the enamel revealing the dentine
Gouging out pulp, separation of cementum
Disintegrating through maxillar scraping
Mandible and glottis now raw and pulsating in a jellied heap
Your incisors on the pavement
A brutal end to your enslavement - life is cheap
Let's have a sacrifice where your teeth merge with your eyes
Sinus collape - blunt facial prolapse
The power I uphold
Teeth and concrete now mold
Shaved and scraped
Hovering above your twitching, bloody mouth that still keeps bitching, begging me: &quot;Please!&
O, death...
Such a tease...
O, the insanity... the humanity.
Toothless gash gives new meaning to &quot;cavities&quot;...
