

Caught in the act, A better place you could stay around to face the cold and the hurt that you've found so go on leave it way behind to look for a better place you know that we'll find things go wrong sometimes things go right sometimes we'll move on won't get left behind life seems dark sometimes then so light it blinds but I want you to see if there a better place that I could be you'd be there to hold you in my arms and always to care in this better place I believe you are there it doesn't matter where we are the love inside is never too far so hold on can't you see that my better place is when your with me

we'll move on
life seems dark sometimes
then so light it blinds but I want you to see If there was a better place that I could be you'd be there to hold you in my arms and always to care
in this better place
I believe
ypu are there
