

Caught in the act, Best friend

I wanna be your I wanna be your I wanna be your I wanna be your best friend giving love is easy to do especially when you`re giving love to somebody new you wanna take it slow a step at a time being friends together for the rest of our lives all of the time you wanted someone to turn to and somewhere that you belong I`d like to try to give you the love that you need I wanna be your best friend give you love happiness everythings I wanna hold you I can`t pretend to be cool when all I wanna do is I wanna be your best friend standing here with you next to me living all our ever afters happily I want the world to know how much we care sharing love and tenderness everywhere that you belong I`d like to try to give you the love that you need whether the rain comes down whether the sun still shines I will be there if you will find all the love that you need all the love you need all the love all the love that you need I wanna be your I wanna be your best friend
