

Cavalera Conspiracy, Hearts Of Darkness

This world in sin, of plagues and pain
We fall, we crawl
No war, no more
Them eyes, they bled for a thousand days
Them eyes, they bled in a thousand ways

This war was heard around the world
It made our ways insane again
Their mouths were shut
They blot out the sun
They fought this war like never before

Today I wake, the wall has fallen
They worship no more
And the temple is gone
Them eyes will bleed the tears of sin
All ears will hear, unleash within

Hearts of darkness
Where madness is endless
Hearts of darkness
Where badness is endless
Hearts of darkness
Where hate is endless
Hearts of darkness
Where hope is hopeless...

Hearts of darkness
Where madness is endless
Hearts of darkness
Where badness is endless
Hearts of darkness
Where agony is endless
Hearts of darkness
Where hearts are heartless...
