

Caviar, Going Out Tonight

Kung fu tongue spar without a solution
The vintage sign made which ends in confusion
Robert Plant kicking from the Japanese hearses
Goes, "Baby baby" in trebly verses
She said no

Let me try to climb up a bean
So I'm gonna meet the giant

There's nobody
Killing my sunshine

La, la, la, la, la

I'm going out tonight

Doing wrong

Two returns a right

La, la, la, la, la

I'm going out tonight

Bloodshot eyes on the freaky Caucasian

His headlights are shining in the air conditioning

Over 25 in the ass-less hot pants

Light a King Hummer on the Kryptonite lance

(Flashdance)

She said no

I never tried to climb up a bean

So I'm gonna meet the giant

There's nobody

Killing my sunshine

La, la, la, la, la

I'm going out tonight

Doing wrong

Two returns a right

La, la, la, la, la

I'm going out tonight

Break down baby

There's nobody

Killing my sunshine

La, la, la, la, la

I'm going out tonight

Doing wrong

Two returns a right

La, la, la, la, la

I'm going out tonight

There's nobody

Killing my sunshine

La, la, la, la, la
