Midnight Gambler

It was raining out that nightcafe?

When I watched my dreams all fade away

Oh don't tell me how the story ends

'Cause I'm sitting here crying in my hands

You're a million miles away

And you're playing every day

So come on, so come on, so come on

He's a midnight gambler

On a highway of fools

Why you're breaking my heart boy ?

Why you're breaking the rules ?

He's a midnight gambler

On a highway of fools

Diamonds are forever

But your heart is too cruel

Oh, you're breaking down my paradise

At the fire, baby, I feel lies

And I'm telling - there's no end

And I'm sitting here crying in my hands

You're a million miles away

Come on baby, make my day

So come on, so come on, so come on

Come on, come on

From the highway of fools

Come on, come on

We are breaking the rules

Come on, come on

Let's stay together

He's a midnight gambler

On a highway of fools

Why you're breaking my heart boy ?

Why you're breaking the rules ?

He's a midnight gamb...

But your heart is too cruel
