Hardest time

This is the hardest time, I can't define it's never easy

When you said goodbye

We're all inclined to act like nothing's wrong

I am the one, he said

Who never had a proper reason to be sad or down

But now I found I've got them all in one

I can't define and nothing should be wrong

I can't decide until I feel it

I am the one, he said

Who never had a proper reason until we said goodbye

We're all inclined to act like nothing's wrong
