Mistaken

Last night I was screaming stuff

I had been mistaken

All shaking, I just couldn't stop

You told me that I was going like

Well, lately I have come to see

I'm trying and trying

I'm fed up with this side of me

It's happening and I was going like...

Mmm, gotta get it off me, until I let it go

And catch the shadows down the wall

Last night I was screaming stuff

I had been completely mistaken what you said to me

You told me that I was going like...

Mmm, gotta get it off me, until I let it go

Mmm, gotta get it off me, until I let you know

And catch the shadows down the wall
