Listen, I'm leaving, I can't have your talking
I hate it so hear this, I want to stop

But I can't seem to fall, no heart, no reply
No reply

I have been hoping to get it together
There has been nobody who told me to stop
But I can't and I won't stop, no heart, no reply
I just can't face it anymore

I am so shallow and
I love you better inspiral denial has made me give up
Cause I can't and I won't, confide to what I'm toldcc
I just can't face it anymore

Following the sun, look at her eyes
I suddenly know it's a sign but I can be wrong
Oh, I have been hoping I was wrong
Thought I had been hoping all along, but it can be
It can be

For I can't seem to find, no heart, no reply
I just can't face it anymore
