

CeCe Winans, Every Time

Whenever I call you're always there
Whenever I'm hurting you ease the pain
Never disappointed, never ever let down
Never disappointed, never ever let down
Never disappointed, never ever let down
Never too busy whenever I'm hurting
To take the time out to stop the pain
Never too hurried whenever I'm worried
That's the reason I'll make it known
Every time I run to you
Every time I come to you
Every time I call you
You're right there
Every time I reach for you
Anytime I ever needed you
Every time I call you
You're right there
It's not uncommon at the beginning
For love to be at your beck and call
It's been some time now and you haven't slowed down
That's the reason I'll make it known
Every time I run to you
Every time I come to you
Every time I call you
You're right there
Every time I reach for you
Anytime I ever needed you
Every time I call you
You're right there

It's not on purpose the wrong I've done
It's just that my weaknesses caused me to run
But the fear of failure loses its scare
In the calm of knowing you're always there
Every time I run to you
Every time I come to you
Every time I call you
You're right there
Every time I reach for you
Anytime I ever needed you
Every time I call you
You're right there, right there
Every time I run to you
Every time I come to you
Every time I call you
You're right there
Every time I reach for you
Anytime I ever needed you
Every time I call you
You're right there
Every time I run to you
Every time I come to you
Every time I call you
You're right there
Every time I reach for you
Anytime I ever needed you
Every time I call you
You're right there
