

CeCe Winans, The Coast Is Clear

chorus::

Come rest your soul, the presence of God is here now the coast is clear, you dont even have to worry the truth is that HE's on your side His love was given as a guide what's left to fear, HE's saving u leave ur fears behind

2x

oh weeping brother, why are u crying wipe ur tears away from ur eyes and see the glory, that lives within u take the perfect peace that only God can give u
see the glory, that lives within u take the perfect peace that only Him can give u

to all the weary and heavy laden, cast ur fears on Him so u can breathe again the time is right now no hesitation claim the victory enjoy the celebration because of Him we don't have to fear the dark night because of Him we can dance up in the sunlight because of Him everyday is a testimony so lift ur hands and give Him glory He is worth our praise

2x

sing it with me one more time because of Him we dont have to fear the dark night
because of Him we can dance up in the sunlight because of Him everyday is HALLELUJAH sing it loud now HALLELUJAH

till fade
