

Celeste Prince, Wherever You Are

Time has come, what's done is done
It's time to move on to another place, another space
Maybe circling some other sun
Don't ask why, don't ask how I still can't explain to say goodbye
Goodbye for now till I see you again
In the sunlight that's where I'll be
In the moon night close your eyes
You will see me in the sunrise, in the twilight
I'll be the morning and the evening star
I will be there with you wherever you are

Life is strange, such joy and pain
The betrayal and the kiss, it maybe meant to be
Maybe destiny leads us down a path like this Child is born, true love is sworn all the in-between
Well you just walk on, walk on until the path is gone
Learning love is the only everything
So it's goodnight, things go wrong but it's alright
We're all just passin' through here at the speed of light
