

Celestial Season, Sharks And Razors

Sharks and razors in my sleep body's aching for some peace how I steal for you, like I steal from you slowly losing my believe in life

Sharks and razors digging deep searching for a remedy how I run for you just to run from you slowly fading, I can't stand the sight because I stole from you the last time and I don't want to abuse you just a minute for your second thoughts and I'll show you I'm through with it I've been hiding my best side from you and I don't want that anymore now I tell you for the first time that I don't want to lose you
