

Celesty, Final Pray

I see that boy, he scares me
He has the power to see
I feel the wings inside his soul
We are the race to be gods
He presenting the race to be lost
But still I fear his cloudy mind

I can't see where he travels
I fear his path might stumble
To our secret powerful dark divine
We must go to our homeland
Before that child, that's our plan
We'll need to take the stones from him

In the silence, this time
I'll try to guide our journey
More faster, before him

This is madness, save us from emptiness
Help us find the saviour
From your kindness not your hate
Sadness, I am the only one in this madness, will you please forgive my soul

I see my ship disappearing
I fear my life soon ending
How could we been so blind to see
Now it's time for final prayer
But I don't think there's Saviour
I'll die knowing the reasons why

In the silence, this time
I'll try to guide our journey
More faster, before him

This is madness, save us from emptiness
Help us find the saviour
From your kindness not your hate
Sadness, I am the only one in this madness, will you please forgive my soul
This is madness, save us from emptiness
Help us find the saviour
From your kindness not your hate
