

Celine Dion, Can't Fight This Feeling

I'm feeling a little peculiar,
I'm feeling kinda strange
I don't know what it is
But I like the change
I console me whenever he's around
It's as if my feet don't even touch the ground
Cause when I'm feeling down
He's there to pick me up
And when I talk too much
He doesn't interrupt
Let me tell you, there's no better guy
This is how he makes me feel inside
I wanna dance, I wanna play
Bet can he hear my heartbeat
A million miles away
He won't stop, my love
'Till I drop
And every day,
My man he tells me I'm so special
That he never could give me up
I'm hooked on the feeling
I'm not sure oh why
You better believe it
And no reason why
And it's a thing called 'love'
It makes me feel so alive
And I can't fight the feeling
Somebody told me once
You only get one chance
So live your life
And do the best you can
Once a day goes by
You never get it back
So better live it
Like it was your last
Don't just stand
Come on play
And tell somebody you love them
At least once a day
And don't stop
'Til you drop
I didn't know
That one day someone so special
Would come up and steal my heart
I'm hooked on the feeling
I'm not sure oh why
And no reason why
Love, love, love
And John Lennon said
That was all you need
If you taste it once
It won't be enough
I'm hooked on the feeling
I'm not sure oh why
And no reason why
It makes me feel so alive
I can't fight the feeling
No, I can't, can't, can't fight the feeling

You better believe it
