

Celine Dion, Love Is All We Need

She was living in a perfect house
With pictures of smiling faces
But there's a different story told inside
Underneath it all
With the sunglasses and makeup on
Blaming the stairs and bases
They all knew (didn't even ask is something wrong)
So they wait
Now she's gone
I don't understand the concept of
The power of one is stronger
Why don't people seem to care at all
As long as it's not about them
I say
I guess we've underestimated love
Well why would we hurt each other
Don't you find that, ironical ?
When Love Is All We Need oh yeah
He is living down his sunset strip
Singing the blues for money
It's easy just to look the other way
When you have it all
He's reaching out to find a helping hand
But nobody seems to bother
Hear them say (It's not my problem so it's not my call.)
You're on your own
Through it all
I don't understand the concept of
The power of one is stronger
Why don't people seem to care at all
As long as it's not about them
I say
I guess we've underestimated love
Well why would we hurt each other
Don't you find that, ironical ?
When Love Is All We Need oh yeah
When all becomes too real
We have a tendency to be
Too scared to face it
It's breaking my heart to see
When Love Is All We Need
I don't understand the concept of
The power of one is stronger
Why don't people seem to care at all
As long as it's not about them
I say
I guess we've underestimated love
Well why would we hurt each other
Don't you find that, ironical ?
When Love Is All We Need oh yeah
