Celine Dion, Love Is All We Need

She was living in a perfect house With pictures of smiling faces

But there's a different story told inside

Underneath it all

With the sunglasses and makeup on

Blaming the stairs and bases

They all knew (didn't even ask is something wrong)

So they wait

Now she's gone

I don't understand the concept of

The power of one is stronger

Why don't people seem to care at all

As long as it's not about them

I sav

I guess we've underestimated love

Well why would we hurt each other

Don't you find that, ironical?

When Love Is All We Need oh yeah

He is living down his sunset strip

Singing the blues for money

It's easy just to look the other way

When you have it all

He's reaching out to find a helping hand

But nobody seems to bother

Hear them say (It's not my problem so it's not my call.)

You're on your own

Through it all

I don't understand the concept of

The power of one is stronger

Why don't people seem to care at all

As long as it's not about them

I say

I guess we've underestimated love

Well why would we hurt each other

Don't you find that, ironical?

When Love Is All We Need oh yeah

When all becomes too real

We have a tendency to be

Too scared to face it

It's breaking my heart to see

When Love Is All We Need

I don't understand the concept of

The power of one is stronger

Why don't people seem to care at all

As long as it's not about them

I say

I guess we've underestimated love

Well why would we hurt each other

Don't you find that, ironical?

When Love Is All We Need oh yeah
