

Celtic Folk, Dont Call Me Early In The Morning

Celtic Folk

Miscellaneous

Dont Call Me Early In The Morning

Don't Call Me Early In The Morning

Chorus: <sup>G</sup> Don't <sup>D</sup> call <sup>C</sup> me <sup>G</sup> early in the morning,
<sup>C</sup> Call <sup>G</sup> me <sup>D</sup> what you want to but leave me alone.
<sup>G</sup> Don't <sup>D</sup> call <sup>C</sup> me <sup>G</sup> early in the morning,
<sup>D</sup> Just <sup>Em</sup> leave me till the cows are coming home.

<sup>G</sup> A man or a woman <sup>C</sup> they need their relaxation
<sup>G</sup> From rising <sup>D</sup> always at the dawn
<sup>G</sup> And the heart of the matter <sup>C</sup> tomorrow is a Saturday
<sup>G</sup> And I'll be <sup>D</sup> lying on.

cho.

<sup>G</sup> Sad the lad that <sup>C</sup> can't rest contented
<sup>G</sup> He has it all but <sup>D</sup> must have more.
<sup>G</sup> He fills himself with pills to retire <sup>C</sup> with a million,
<sup>G</sup> But falls <sup>D</sup> asleep at sixty-four.

cho.

<sup>G</sup> Fair is fair and I've <sup>C</sup> done my share,
<sup>G</sup> My nerves are <sup>D</sup> getting on my nerves.
<sup>G</sup> If you don't have a <sup>C</sup> pillow of the white swan's feather,
<sup>G</sup> I'll do with a <sup>D</sup> corner for my head.

cho.

<sup>G</sup> Just a gentle <sup>C</sup> warning for tomorrow morning,
<sup>G</sup> No big <sup>D</sup> noises near my room.
<sup>G</sup> Cars with no exhaust, <sup>C</sup> Chickens with the hooping cough,
<sup>G</sup> And milkmen that <sup>D</sup> whistle out of tune!

cho.