

Cemetary, Morningstar

and now it has been done your nightmare had me fooled tragedy all gone and overruled your world is dry of pleasure your world is full of pain and when the curtain falls will you do it all again?

fevered eclipse
silence released
call of the wild
cyclone revolution
hours of despair
cease to exist
call of the wild

I found revelation
the moment that you failed the moment of truth
a time to betray these chains have long been broken weakness left the bone static recreation cut in stone

the blind are left to seek silent soul - silent speak counting all the pieces blood and broken glass this time it won't come to pass
