

Cemetary, Where The Rivers Of Madness Stream

Take me to the other side beyond this world I know thru madness eternal falls my sanity will flow

Here I will be where the rivers of madness stream down the gulcs to a pit of dream

My sanity defiled now I leave behind to plains immortal
I unleash my mind

Here I am not lost these sights are not strange to me and I shall not dwell alone within my insanity

"Though dead I seem I will live forever within my dream for beyond the lakes of sanity our dreams become reality"
