

Centinex, Torn Within

(Music: Schulman)

(Lyrics: Schulman)

Tombstones made of flesh
Out in the stream of blood
Forever to be gone
And the memories flow away
Beyond the gates of silence
I'm torn forever

Suffering - bleeding wounds
Deformed being
Silent decay

Let me sleep forever
Let me vanish in peace
Save me from this hell
To the eternity in my dreams

Amorphous pile of skulls
Human life condemned
A crucifix of sacred bones
Final peace evokated

Take me far away
My soul wants to rest
"I am blinded by the grief
Let me be dead, forever"

Evil absorption of hopes
Creeping smell of rottingness
The deceased sinners in catacombs
Funeral for the screaming mortals

The path through illusions
Sacrificed souls dissever
Tombstones made of flesh
A graveyard of mangled limbs
Out in the stream of blood
My life will be vanished
Dissolved piece by piece
Under the freezing moon
