

Central Cee, Line

(R-R-Real One)

Girl, I hit you on the phone, yeah

Girl, I hit you on the phone, yeah

If you hear the tone, yeah

Are you with him or alone, yeah

Make you bet, you let me know, yeah

Heart's banging on my mind, mind

Are you wasting my time, time?

Are you his or is you mine, mine?

Are you his or is you mine, mine?

I've been dialing your line down

I've been dialing your line down

Tryna get through to you

Tryna get through to you

Tryna get through to you, girl

Through to you, girl

I'm true to you, girl

I'm not new to this, but I'm new to you, girl

Dialing your line down

You run your mind now

You come to my house

I put the lights down

You put the blind down

I'll call you mine now

Mine now, yeah, you're mine now

Let's go say nothing about it

Word on the road, I'm about

Word on the road, I'm in town

You know me, you see I got clout

You don't know my name

You stay in your lane

And this ain't a game

I've been in the way 'fore I rage in the chain

But this ain't a right time, yeah

But you know you're mine, right? yeah

Told my mum I'm on a bike ride, yeah

Really, I've been hustlin' in the day and the nighttime

My guys, know them like day one

White lines, they ain't got skengs, boy

Gyal on my line, they know that I'm peng

You know that I'm

You know that I'm

You know that I'm

Running and cuttin', they see me now

You know that they wanna be me now

The gyal on my ends wanna beat me now

They wanna talk, they see that I'm eating now

Why, why, bye, bye

It's my time, run up and buss up like drive-bys

I know exactly that you want from me and I'll know what I'll give ya

I know that you won't be stressin' when them girls come along for a picture

I got to go for a scripture

Don't let me come and go get ya

Just let me come to your house now

You know that I'll come and dig ya

Down, down, this is my town

Yeah, you was his, but you're mine now

Yeah, you're mine now

I'm dialing your line down

Dialing your line

Dialing your line

Dialing your line
Dialing your line down

(Dialing your line down)
Girl, I hit you on the phone, yeah
If you hear the tone, yeah
Are you with him or alone, yeah
Make you bet, you let me know, yeah
Heart's banging on my mind, mind
Are you wasting my time, time?
Are you his or is you mine, mine?
Are you his or is you mine, mine?
I've been dialing your line down
I've been dialing your line down
Tryna get through to you
Tryna get through to you
Tryna get through to you, girl
