

Central Cee, Pinging (6 Figures)

(ITCHY, is that how you goin' on, yeah?)

Take that risk and go independent, I just turned down six figures (dickDifferent)
On the phone you was loud, now we're in real life and you're soundin' timid (Quiet)
The young bull chef and swing it, the kids these days aren't down for swingings
Sellin' them party drugs, I'm the one that got the party pingin' (I'm the one that)

That boy got caught out, slippin' by the po-po and he started singin' (Oh no)
These days I been feelin' different, on my solo, I don't need no bringin'
While the man there chasin' bitches, I put in the work, I don't need no women (Don't need no)
They don't wanna see me in my bag, they're pissed that I keep on winnin'
They used to sleep on my ting, put in the work and I keep on grindin'
Got my cake up, I paid it straight up, I defo don't need cosignin' (Nah)
Demon time, I move in quiet, I'm pourin' up lean in Sprite
We invest in white and turn on lines, you boys just bein' online

Take that risk and go independent, I just turned down six figures (dickDifferent)

I just heard a knock on the door, it's six in the morn and my heartbeat's skippin' (Who's that?)
Feds in the crib, G-checkin', they're askin' questions, my margie ain't trippin'
I'm screamin', "Free all of my ones locked," fuck it, the clock keep tickin'
Imagine we grew near a OT spot, I think that a lot would be different
They're callin', I gotta be quick, I'm baggin' up yay in a lottery ticket
I can't trust man that chat like gyal, I'm thinkin' they're probably snitches (Probably)
I don't wanna play thing safe, nine times outta ten I'll probably risk it
They're showing me love right now, but if I was broke they'd probably switch it

Take that risk and go independent, I just turned down six figures

They tried cramp my style, I turned back 'round on a quick re-route
Bad B wanna eat uptown, I'm too laid-back, she got figure me out
Don't make me waste my time, if I come out is it worth my while?
I don't wanna hear no Samsung ring, I don't wanna hear that sound
Huh, the kids these days don't care about gettin' a bag, they just care about clout
In the trap tryna run up that bag, you're out there tryna run man down
If you get caught with grub, good luck, they're not tryna hear man out
Free D-Roy out the pound, they're all tryna send him down

Take that risk and go independent, I just turned down six figures (dickDifferent)
