

Centurian, Of Purest Fire

From the hand of Evil I was sent destroying that where jesus went In the name of Satan I command Kill the priest and steal his land

Onwards the arise where life can be unmade
I am Of Purest Fire
Burning all what should be burned

I found the portrait of christ reigning in the minds of the iced son of the god of cancer never will he give you an answer

I create a Demonstorm my will shall be in demonform
I evoke my Demondreams Demonic so it seems

Join me, I am stronger for all what is shall be no longer
