

Century, Finally

At last I've found you
At last I've found you for me

Oh, I dream of that sacred love to have
But I know for sure, that everything I gave was not enough
For me and you, we grow so strong, so much we can resist
But you're far away, I have to wait for you

Every day and night I feel your love inside
But I can't find you, no I can't find you
I cannot find you

Yes, I try to find something I don't know
I want to stay free, in my heart I've always known Forever, like a game I try to know how hard it is for you how you feel inside, you will break my heart in two

Every day and night I feel your love inside
But I can't find you, no I can't find you
I cannot find you
