

Century, Nothing No More

It's never easy in this routine
To understand, what this could mean
You are the one, who knows my needs
And you will always understand me
You will always understand
It's never easy to be loved
It's never easy to hold on

Please love my denial
Don't touch me tonight
Can't you feel my heart means nothing to me
Nothing, nomore

It's never easy to create
To build, what everybody breaks
It's never time to let things out
For people, who will always doubt
And if it's time to recognize
You will see it in my eyes

Please love my denial
Don't touch me tonight
Can't you feel my heart means nothing to me
Nothing, nomore

It's never easy in this routine
To understand, what this could mean
It's never easy to create
To build, what everybody breaks
It's never easy to be loved
It's never easy to forget
It's never easy
