

Ceremonial Oath, Dreamsong

[lyrics:lwiers]

Light, within us
Dark, without you I'm lost Forever, the wounds you cause will never ever heal Your face is in my mind etched there by my feelings which I cannot deny Enough, I had too much of your games our days are drawing close Emotions, I have one hate I have to feel It all sounds so strange Never ever will I see you again Take me to another place
A journey far beyond Can't you see that you and me our bonds will never break Come take my hand
Never let go
I have too much to say Walk with me over the edge
Still never looking back
