

Ceremonial Oath, Dreamsong

[lyrics:lwrs]

Light,within us
Dark,without you I'm lost Forever,the wounds you cause will never ever heal Your face is in my mind etched there by my feelings which I cannot deny Enough,I had too much of your games our days are drawing close Emotions,I have one hate I have to feel It all sounds so strange Never ever will I see you again Take me to another place
A journey far beyond Can't you see that you and me our bonds will never break Come take my hand
Never let go
I have too much to say Walk with me over the edge
Still never looking back
