Ceremonial Oath, The Shadowed End

[lyrics:Lindberg]

Now the bridges burn there's no return from this here state And the words of truth are spoken they all shall turn their heads in fear Here at the shadowed end We all shall meet our lost and dear A sinister music tears at my brain A symphony where which my mind is raped Nocturnal treasures lie beyound Far beyond reality The Shadowed end Passing before my tortured eyes Marching cross the shadowed skies As storms they ripped them blackened clouds The Shadowed end
