

CF98, Buffalo's Eye

My mother told me yesterday

I cant take it off my head

My little girl the truth is; you were supposed to be a boy

You were to have a gift of a huge and long long feet

Cur short hair, have a different smell

Endlessly look for chick

I was supposed to be

Loser at 23

To feel guilty when my girlfriend is pissed off again

To be a president whose words do not make sense

Or to be a boy whose girlfriend made me to use the bufflos eye

I was to derive joy

From toys for adult boys

Sometimes pretend someone Im not and hide what I feel

My name would be Carol; and it really sucks, I know

Id have a simple life not think too much, cause my woman would

Its just a little joke,

Theres no offence in this

Its just a little joke

Just a little joke and ...

Also a reason to justify myself

To justify mistakes, I could not have made x2

I was supposed to be

Loser at 23

To feel guilty when my girlfriend is pissed off again

To be a president whose words do not make sens

Or to be a boy whose girlfriend made me to use the buffalos eye
