

Chad Brock, Park The Pickup (Kiss The Girl)

That's the third time that you passed it
The turn to lover's lane
You're drivin' her in circles
You're drivin' me insane
This is your conscience speakin'
Now, I don't mean to pry
But how can you miss that "kiss me" look
That's right there in her eyes
Don't you know it's now or never
Come on, man, and get it together

Park the pickup, kiss the girl
Find a spot with a pretty view
Pull her over next to you
The whole world's your oyster
She's your pearl
Now park the pickup, kiss the girl
Kiss the girl

Now I ain't tryin' to scare you
But you'd better get this right
You only get so many chances
So many moonlit nights
And I wouldn't be your conscience
If I could lie to you
So the truth is, time is wastin'
So it's time to make your move
Come on, turn up the music
Before you say something stupid

Park the pickup, kiss the girl
Find a spot with a pretty view
Pull her over next to you
The whole world's your oyster
She's your pearl
Now park the pickup, kiss the girl
Kiss the girl

Come on, turn up the music
Before you say something stupid

Park the pickup, kiss the girl
Find a spot with a pretty view
Pull her over next to you
The whole world's your oyster
She's your pearl
Now park the pickup, kiss the girl

Park the pickup, kiss the girl
Kiss the girl

The whole world's your oyster
She's your pearl
Now park the pickup, kiss the girl
I'm gonna park right over here
