Chad Mitchell Trio, What Did You Learn In School

Two and two are four And four and four are eight ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOP Two and two are four

What did you learn in school today Dear little boys of mine What did you learn in school today Dear little boys of mine

I learned that Washington never told a lie I learned that soldiers seldom die I learned that everybody's free That's what the teacher said to me And that's what I learned in school today That's what I learned in school

What did you learn in school today Dear little boys of mine What did you learn in school today Dear little boys of mine

I learned that policemen are my friends
I learned that justice never ends
I learned that murderers die for their crimes
Even if we make a mistake sometimes
And that's what I learned in school today
That's what I learned in school

What did you learn in school today Dear little boys of mine What did you learn in school today Dear little boys of mine

I learned that wars are not so bad I learned of the great ones we have had We fought in Germany and in France And someday I might get my chance And that's what I learned in school today That's what I learned in school

What did you learn in school today Dear little boys of mine What did you learn in school today Dear little boys of mine

I learned that Government must be strong It's always right and never wrong Our leaders are the finest men And so we elect them again and again And that's what I learned in school today That's what I learned in school

That's what I learned in school today That's what I learned in school Two and two are four Two and two are four
