

Chaka Khan, I Remember U

I remember u from a long time ago
When my eyes were new, it could be just a feeling
But I don't think so, I'm trusting all my senses
That's how I know I remember u
I remember u, a warm and simple memory
Soft and all aglow like a mother's love
That every baby knows, I've listened to my heart
And it tells me so I remember you
