

Chalee Tennison, You Can't Say That

(Chalee Tennison/Jeremy Campbell/Phil O'Donnell)

Your taxi is waiting outside
I'm slowly dying inside
Knowing this might be our last goodbye
Don't stop me, if I try to stop you
Don't tell me, not to tell you I love you
I'm only trying to save my heart

You can say that my tears are gonna end
And you can say that we'll be better off as friends
But you can't say I won't be on my knees
Praying you'll come back to me
And the day will come I won't want you back
No you can't say that

Don't hold me, don't hold me so close
If only, you're only letting me go
Just leave me, if this is your goodbye

You can say that my tears are gonna end
And you can say that we'll be better off as friends
But you can't say I won't be on my knees
Praying you'll come back to me
And the day will come I won't want you back
No you can't say that
