

Chamber - L'Orchestre De Chambre Noir, A Dead

I don't know how long this place's been my home
I don't know how long
I've been trying to write this song the boys are all gone oh-since 1981
they've left me
all alone

I've been trying without a reason
just floating
with the stream of my heart or what's been left of it

All I ever wanted
was the ultimate song pure, true fulfillment of the heart

I've heard a million songs I've seen a thousand bands generations came along shared my room, my house but none's ever noticed me or my craft
they were too busy
with themselves

I've been trying to get through but these mortals
were so ignorant
who needs
a dead man's song

Once I had a love
who inspired all my songs now, I've found you would you sing along to tell the audience
oh-about 81
about me
and my room

I've been trying to escape
but for me every exit is an entrance to this room where they've left me
all alone..

Music: M. Testory/ R. Hoffmann
Words: M. Testory