

Chamber - L'Orchestre De Chambre Noir, The Mo

This morning was a hell of a day didn't know just where to start
this morning was a hell of a day I thought I'd fall apart couldn't face you to face me couldn't face anyone else I needed to hide myself behind the books on the shelf

I'm looking for you
to help me through I'm looking for you
to show me what to do

I needed a guiding hand from someone who is true lets open a window just look at that view that's when I jumped out of bed just couldn't find my head that's when I jumped out of bed would've rather stayed instead

I'm looking for you
to help me through
I'm looking for you
to show me what to do

I wish I hadn't woke up couldn't think of what to do I can see this is not my day this time I know I'm through sit back and just relax take time to contemplate don't start to start your day you know it's much to late

You feel it's cold out there why should you really care don't fret your life away tomorrow's just another day

Music: R. Huebner, M. Testory Words: J. Prilbil