

Chamillionaire, Rocky Road

[Chorus]

The Rain Is Fallin' And The Weather Is Cold
Don't Know Which Way To Go, But I Continue To Roll
The Rainfall Is Really Taking A Toll
On My Mind And My Body And On My Spirit And Soul
The Rain's Fallin' But I'm Keeping A Hold
On The Light Cuz I Know That I Could Spin Outta Control
I Know Know, I Know Know, I Know This Is Gonna Be One Rocky Road

[Verse 1]

What part of the voyage is this?
Friendship and business don't mix
Wit anyone else its just business
Wit friends I'm personally pissed
Is this a curse or a gift?
Guess i was blessed wit my wish
Don't tell me that u feel my pain
That I sayin' its best if we switch
You take the fortune and fame
And see if its what u expected
Take the money and change
And be careful where u invest it
Just take the test and don't stress it
You get stopped by a detective
Tryna get in ya personal life
The gotta do yo best to protect it
The answer rests in a message
When I go I'll go in a blaze
But it wont be no captain savin'
Cuz where I'm goin ya saved
Tryna rain down on my parade
Till that umbrella get raised
They thinkin' that they can read me
Then they ain't knowin' my page
Tryin' to keep a smile on my face
Even at times when I engage
In business conversations
Wit people I know are snakes
If life is a piece of cake
Part of the icing is venom
Spent a lifetime tryin to bring me down
But I jus ain't gonna let em
Ya betta tell em

[Chorus]

The Rain Is Fallin' And The Weather Is Cold
Don't Know Which Way To Go, But I Continue To Roll
The Rainfall Is Really Taking A Toll
On My Mind And My Body And On My Spirit And Soul
The Rain's Fallin' But I'm Keeping A Hold
On The Light Cuz I Know That I Could Spin Outta Control

[Verse 2]

I'm back and forth and I'm pacing
Bein more patient than patience
Tryin to wait for the good news to show up
But im unfortunately waitin'
Gotta be group participation
If its intercourse that we making

I was unfortunately done
And she was unfortunately fakin'
Cuz the only sexual spark

Is the spark he got for the dough
They say till death do us part
But that part is where she says no
There are too many emotions
Emotions like pins and needles
Actin' like emotions are evil
Like showin love is illegal
I thought that it was a eagle
But I've seen this vulture before
He thinks this is where i stop
'Cause he sees that im walkin slow
But no I think you should know
That soon as I get where I go
You'll remember the fact that
I had a purpose fa'sho

[Hook]

I Hope You Know Where Your Going
I hope You Know That Today
On The Side Of The Road
You Gon See A Whole Lotta Snakes
When The Bad Weather Comes
To Rain Down On Ya Parade
Jus Raise Up Ya Umbrella
And Try To Keep Goin Straight

[Chorus]

The Rain Is Fallin' And The Weather Is Cold
Don't Know Which Way To Go, But I Continue To Roll
The Rainfall Is Really Taking A Toll
On My Mind And My Body And On My Spirit And Soul
The Rain's Fallin' But I'm Keeping A Hold
On The Light Cuz I Know That I Could Spin Outta Control
I Know Know, I Know Know, I Know This Is Gonna Be One Rocky Road

[Verse 3 - Devin Da Dude]

This road has many curves
Many bumps and potholes
It can even take you thru a loop if u aint got yo
Shit togetha unpredictable weather could leave ya
Dehydrated frostbitten washed away or eitha
Ran ova by heavy traffic watch where you roam
Cuz its a challenge jus tryna make it home
But still I walk I keep my pace I keep my stride
Would hitchhike, but there's too much pride
I must find a narrow path
So I can walk and laugh out loud
Cry and sing without bein judged by the crowd
Maybe someday I could just fly away but for now
I'll jus beat my feet and get there someway somehow
And mile after mile after mile I'll smile
Keepin my head up even though rain's pourin down
And the road gets rough and the journey is long
I might get tired but I must move on

[Chorus]

The Rain Is Falling And The Weather Is Cold
Don't Know Which Way To Go, But I Continue To Roll
The Rainfall Is Really Taking A Toll
On My Mind And My Body And On My Spirit And Soul
The Rain's Fallin' But I'm Keeping A Hold
On The Light Cuz I Know That I Could Spin Outta Control
I Know Know, I Know Know, I Know This Is Gonna Be One Rocky Road
