

Chamillionaire, The Ultimate Vacation

Get away, Get away (hey)
You got to have a passport if you're rollin' with me
We can hit Jamaica or we can chill in France
Roll with a playa, you can bring a friend (ya)
You in the presence of some playas, Chamillitary do it big
We could hit hawaii or the caribbean,
We could do it major, chillin on the sand

[Chorus]

You stressin' everyday, 'cause the way that you're livin'
See it in your face, ain't no fakin' the feelin'
We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'
We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'
We can go today, and get away for a minute
Party everyday, do your thing to the rhythm
We can get away -ay -ay, get away
We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'

[Hook]

Ay, I got money, got paper,
Ay, I got plenty of cheddar (plenty of cheddar)
So we treatin', today like we know it ain't lastin' forever
Hey, now bartender, remember
To bring the straw with the umbrella (please bring the umbrella)
Hey, we just drinkin', and thinkin',
Of a way that we can make life better

[Verse 1]

Ya! Coconut with the umbrella baby
And the Rhianna Soundin chick is the umbrella lady
It ain't no carpet on the floor like they renovating
Palm trees like my old homeboys, hella shady
Time flies so you know the clock is passin' through
Hit the sand is the only other task to do
You know my fanbase is international
Their fanbase is only within an avenue (Ugh!)
Go wherever that you plan
G5 I'll show 'em how to fly like Peter Pan
Get a lobster or anything that she demand
If it isn't then it's somethin' you will never eat again
Step off the yacht if you wanna see the land
I'll take you to the sun if you really need a tan
Water look like oxygen anywhere you stand
'Cause the ocean so clear you look down and see the sand

[Chorus]

You stressin' everyday, 'cause the way that you're livin'
See it in your face, ain't no fakin' the feelin'
We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'
We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'
We can go today, and get away for a minute
Party everyday, do your thing to the rhythm
We can get away -ay -ay, get away

We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'

[Verse 2]

Listen, if money talks, my paper probly speak Greek

I'm in a different continent like each week
Seein' daylight and they gon probly be sleep
No cell phones, send a telegram to East Beach
Females, it's like ya chick is so hot to me
Can we all chill, i turn maybe into possibly
You know my beach house is what you got to see
Paper and property, walkin' game of Monopoly
My helicopter lands on the boardwalk
Where the residents ain't understandin' your talk
The cliff ends and the salt water pours off
Think what you think, but you'll never have a bored thought
Water so warm that the fishes isn't cold
And the air is so open that the pigeons get exposed
Didn't i remind you to bring your swimmin' clothes
No, i didn't on purpose, now you're swimmin' in your Whoa!

[Hook]

Ay, I got money, got paper,
Ay, I got plenty of cheddar (plenty of cheddar)
So we treatin', today like we know it ain't lastin' forever
Hey, now bartender, remember
To bring the straw with the umbrella (please bring the umbrella)
Hey, we just drinkin', and thinkin',
Of a way that we can make life better

[Verse 3]

It's all good, long as you don't turn on me like a doorknob
And try to make my flow stop like a cork does
Now we'll be in Hawaii eatin' corn cob
Pinnin' a flower in your hair like a corsage
Said i shouldn't leave, but you know i ain't hear a thing
10 karat earring blockin' all my hearing
Never go back is exactly what they're fearing
Know plenty Jamaicans so i brought you to the real ting
Rude Boy! Sick wit it and givin' flu
It's like i just appeared here, but i really flew
They say it just to rhyme, this what i really do
Deja-Vu, we'll repeat it when the year is through

[Chorus]

You stressin' everyday, 'cause the way that you're livin'
See it in your face, ain't no fakin' the feelin'
We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'
We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'
We can go today, and get away for a minute
Party everyday, do your thing to the rhythm
We can get away -ay -ay, get away
We can get away -ay -ay and be chillin'
