(Spoken)

Boy that's some ugly woman, I'm telling you!
That woman's so ugly, she can draw a blister on a brick, man, but she's all right! You seen a REAL ugly woman?

I've seen your wife!
That's her! That's her!
You know she was so ugly when she was a little girl.

Huh?
Her father used to take her to work with him every morning.
And I say, why do you take the poor kid out every morning that early, you know? He says, She's so doggone ugly he hate to kiss her goodbye, so he take her with him, you know.

Some ugly child!
