

Changing Faces, What I've Been Missin'

[1:]

You give me
All this love that I've been missing
You make me
Show the feelings I wanna hide
No other love compares
To the love you're giving
You give me
What I've been missing at home

What is this feeling about
Oh yes this feeling I've been feeling
It always comes around
Whenever I'm thinking bout you
Tell me what do I do
When I got a love that I'm supposed to love
You're giving me
What I've been missing at home

[1]

I should be satisfied
With the love that I already have Content about
About the things that he does
But I need so much more
So much more than he can offer
So much more than what he's giving at home

[1]

You give me so much joy
Never knew what I was missing
Feelings I just can't deny
No other love compares
To the love that you've been giving
You're what I've been missing at home
