

Channel Zero, All For One

There are times to joke
There are times to be serious

Anytime you might see
You can die for nothing
You could fall alone
Anyone would agree with me

But there's thing
Just like anything
That you need your good friends for
They're always ready to keep you steady
Through the hard times you might even flow

All for one
One for all

We could rob a bank

And be strong as a tank
As long as we keep it clean
And we'd be fine come rain or shine
Try to understand what I mean

You might need someone
Like the day needs sun
Even if it's a son of a bitch
Who you can talk to
Who you can laugh with
Or even a fight could make you rich

Get up, get up, get up and go
Get up, get up, get up and let yourself go

All for one
One for all
