

Chant, M-a-n

Chante Moore

Exposed

M-a-n

Verse 1

When i first saw you i had nothing to compare to

How could i recognize the man of a life time

But when you first told me of the secrets deep within me

I had to admit

This is it

If it not had been fortold

The love that would unfold

Cant wait til it overflows

Just look no one even knows

I cant deny it

Im ready to try

When i look in your eyes

I feel butterflies

Chorus

Ya ya pa pa

M-a-n m-a-n m-a-n

Man oh man

Man of a life time

Verse 2

You know i had to get near you cause

Your pullin my trigger duck

Im bout to blow

I think you know your fullfilling my fantasies

I had before you and me

You knew without know

And my mind is blowing

Come take a trip

Come take a dip

I think i knew what eve felt before they slipped

Safe in your arms

Deep in your arms

Ive waited so long to sing you this song

Chorus
