

Chant??? Moore, Candlelight and You

There's no easy way to explain, how I feel for you
So I say with every emotion, what falling in love can do
To my romantic heart, you've helped me through the rain
Take me in your arms, I give you control
Tenderly, whisper to me
I'm all you need, finally
Candlelight and you
For all the things that you are to me, and what you do
I want candlelight and you
The end of the day I will faithfully come home to
Candlelight and you
Take everything away from me, what sees me through
Candlelight and you
In all of the world, I know it's true
Nothing compares to candlelight and you
Lady, there's no way to deny, that you keep love new
So I'll give you what you desire, I found what I need in you
You can believe in me, and I won't let you down, I'll be here
And I want you to know that I love you
Like no other man could ever, ever do
And I'll keep holding on for candlelight and you
Candlelight and you
For all the things that you are to me, and what you do
I want candlelight and you
The end of the day I will faithfully come home to you
Candlelight and you
Take everything away from me, what sees me through
Candlelight and you
In all of the world, I know it's true
Nothing compares to candlelight and you
I'm in the mood tonight, oh yeah
I feel as free as a kiss in the wind
And if I had to live my life all over again
What I would do, is be with you
Candlelight and you
For all the things that you are to me, and what you do
I want candlelight and you
The end of the day I will faithfully come home to you
Candlelight and you
Take everything away from me and what sees me through
Candlelight and you
In all over the world, I know it's true
Nothing compares to candlelight and you
Tonight is the night
Let's turn off the lights
Let's get the mood, the mood for you
[Incomprehensible]
Come on, come on, tell me will this be right
I've been waiting on to you, just for you
Let's go baby
Come on, come on, come on, light a candlelight
Candlelight and you, let's do it right
Give me the love, I want from you
Candlelight and you
I want candlelight and you
