Co-Dependant

When I go swimming in you intellect
The waters so shallow and the dialect is so phony
But I eat it up like bologna
I cant get enough

Well I should end it
But I defend it
Well I dont recommend it
Cause Im your co-dependant

When you go fishing for a compliment
Its sooooo so obvious
And I cant help it so I put up with it
Cause youre my habit and I just cant quit

Well I should end it
But I defend it
Well I keep pretending
Cause Im your co-dependant

The world keeps spinning
Lucifer keeps sinning
The joker keeps grinning
But I need a new beginning

Well I should end it
But I defend it
Well I dont recommend it
Cause Im your co-dependant

Well I should end it
But I defend it
Well I cant comprehend it
Baby be my co-dependant
