

Chantal Kreviazuk, Half Of Me

That was the sweetest song that I ever heard
Sometimes I feel we're just tryin' to steal
From the way that we once were
I'm not the kind of girl to throw the first stone
But this isn't fun, the damage is done
Don't know which way to turn
When half of me is ready to leave and half of me is you
You're the reason I'm alive, oh honey, you
And there's no way I can deny
All you inspire in me, I'm so inspired
It's not a perfect world, but it's the one we live in
But we get so spoiled and think we need more
Grass is greener with someone else, yes
Don't really think that I'm goin' out on a limb
If I say that you're the greatest chord that I ever hit
Half of me is ready to leave and half of me is you
You're the reason I'm alive, oh honey, you
And there's no way I can deny
All you inspire in me, I'm so inspired
I don't know what I'm doin' here
I don't know what I'm doin' here
But it's these times, oh, I've gotta trust
There's someone bigger than us
I don't know what I'm doin' here
I don't know what I'm doin' here
So I, I'll just trust
Oh honey, you, you're the reason I'm alive
Oh honey, you, and there's no way I can deny
All you inspire in me
Oh honey, you, and you're the reason I'm alive
Oh honey, you, and there's no way I can deny
All you inspire in me, I'm so inspired
I'm so inspired, so inspired
