

Chaos UK, Back To Scool

Back to school in Woolworth's clothes
Now your mummy's dream
Right inside her price range
But not everything you seem
Now you are with Satan
In the gates, all in black
You don't give a shit
'Cos you're never coming back

It's all a silly dream, it's lodged in your head
Too many metal albums of what Satan said
It's all a silly dream, it's lodged in your head
Too many bullshit albums of what those rock stars said

Your change to heavy metal
Only took jeans and a shirt
It's an instant change
With satan, you can't be hurt
Talk about high school
When you have no class
'Cos you know with metal
The highway to hell is fast
